McCOLLISTER
BEVERLY A. (CHASE)

A memorial service for Beverly A. (Chase) McCollister, 73, wife of John McCollister, author of four books on the Pittsburgh Pirates, who passed away following a valiant struggle with cancer on April 5, 2010, will be held later this month in Port Orange, Florida. Beverly, born in Newark, Ohio, was graduated with a B.S. in Education from Capital University (Columbus). She later received her Masters in Education from Nova University. She taught school for many years in Ohio and Florida. She was a respected organist at several churches throughout Florida. Three years ago, she was invited to present a recital in Stormthal, Germany, on one of the two remaining organs played by Johann Sebastian Bach. She is survived by her husband of nearly 50 years; two daughters, Beth (Steve) Armogida of Sierra Madre, California; Amy (Bryan) McDaniel of Jacksonville, Florida; a son, Michael (Deborah) McCollister of Charlottesville, Virginia; three grandchildren, Audra, Olivia and Canon; and a sister, Carol (Jack) Davis of San Antonio, Texas; her beloved dachshund "Pirate" and the family of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Tax deductible donations may be made in her name to the Pittsburgh Pirates Alumni Association, 115 Federal Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15212.
